

EDITOR'S NOTES

Our computer system is great. You will note from the September issue; I am still having some minor problems with the printer interface. The character spacing is not perfect and some of the overstrikes are also not perfect. The increase in indexing capability is fantastic! I hope to have time to work with some of this capability in the near future.

If any of you has index files for taxons, subjects, or any aspect of opisthobranchology, please share them with us. It takes a while to get large amounts of data entered but the results are really worth the effort. Anyone who sends data for an index will receive a free copy as soon as their entries are added. The rest of you will have to wait until the work is published in the ON or as a separate.

Don't worry about the format of the data when you send it. File cards, scraps of paper, typed lists -- all are welcome. Please take the time to send me reprints of your publications -- even newspaper clippings and reviews. I really want to get to original papers when possible. Too many errors creep in when I am working from second hand information. Please also take the time to notify me of typographical and other errors in the ON.

I have hundreds of papers on film which have not yet been titled and filed in order. Please continue to send for copies -- we will work as fast as possible to answer requests.

Any time you do in depth research on an animal, or on a group of animals, please keep track of your references and compile a list to go into the taxon index. There is no way within reason that I can search out all of this information but, if you send it, I will get it into the files.

EDITOR'S NOTE

Now that everyone has a complete list of the illustrations which have been presented in the first thirteen volumes of the Opisthobranch Newsletter I hope that you will take the time to send in some different species for illustration. It would be especially useful if some of the animals which have never appeared in color photographs could be illustrated. Another useful group would be animals which have only been illustrated in some of the older and less-widely distributed publications.

To date, over 130 species have been illustrated in the ON. I would like to bring the average up from 10 per year to more than 12. If anyone is interested in having a complete reference to a species in each issue, I will be pleased to try them out. I would like a drawing of the animal plus radular, reproductive and other drawings to completely identify the animal. You should also include the original name, citation, and any synonymies along with the range and natural history notes. Please, no new species descriptions!

Special thanks to Ian Loch, William Emerson, Wes Farmer, James Lance, Dave Behrens, and others who contributed to this issue of the ON.

CURRENT EVENTS

On Sunday, November 14, 1982, Steven J. Long and Roberta A. Long will host a reception at their home between 2:00PM and 5:00PM. Everyone is welcome to attend. Please give us a call if you will be able to come.

NUMBER TO AUTHOR LIST

READER FORUM

I need some solid input as to format and content for the Opisthobranch Newsletter. The current two column format with seven lines per inch vertical and 3.7" columns seems to be a good mix of readability and data compaction. If anyone has any suggestions or comments, please feel free. I will occasionally use a different format for special material.

The two lists given recently should assist you locating information. I want to make them more useful and accurate. Please help! Some of the material included in past issues of the newsletter is listed below:

1. Number to author lists: (1979 and 1982) list almost all of the existing citation numbers for Opisthobranch citations.

2. Author to number list: (1978) lists author with citation number for all citations appearing to about June, 1978.

3. Address lists: (Published about once per year) list best currently known address for individuals and institutions interested in Opisthobranchs.

4. ON Citation Number to ON Volume Index: (1982) lists page numbers where best available citations appear in the ON or in Index Nudibranchia.

5. Taxon Index: (1981) lists all known opisthobranch taxa.

6. ON Illustration Index: (1982) lists all illustrations which have appeared in the Opisthobranch Newsletter.

All of the lists above will be continued and updated. Some are so voluminous as to preclude reprinting in the ON. The lists which are too large will be printed in segments in the ON issues and available as supplements from the editor. I may print them as a volume of the ON every five years or so but it seems like a waste. I would rather use the space for short papers, personal notes, current events, new citations, and so on.

One list which I want to change is the Taxon Index (number 5 above). I would like to print a list arranged systematically by current standards and reprint the list every year or so as significant changes take place. To do this, I will need at least three specialists to help (I simply don't have the time or knowledge to do a proper job). I would like the list to include all levels of Opisthobranchia with the source reference listed along with any applicable ICZN rulings. This list could also include published range information. Please send comments on this idea. Is it possible?

Two additional lists are planned (preparation in progress -- slowly):

1. Species index: to list all taxa by genus-species and species, genus combinations giving all possible references to citation numbers. This will also include higher-level names.

2. Subject index: to list subjects and references to citation numbers. I will appreciate any inputs for subject categories.

Please send ideas for additional lists which you believe are important for the ON. Some possible lists are: Geographic type localities; Keys by region or to major classification; Museum type material holdings (some have already been listed); Photographic slide lists; Color illustration lists; Anatomical drawing lists (radulae?).

The Opisthobranch Newsletter is almost complete for the fourteenth volume. It is still a constant battle to get information, typing equipment, printing equipment, and mailing time. I have reached a point where I cannot imagine not publishing the Opisthobranch Newsletter for the rest of my life. I am not saying that there won't be extended periods where publication is slow -- I am simply saying that you can count on the ON arriving eventually.

PERSONAL NOTES

Steve & Roberta 'Bobbie' Long were married on November 13, 1982. Some friends present included Pete & Sue Oringer, Howard Katzman, Don & Kathy Cadien, and Patrick LaFollette from the Opisthobranch group plus a number of family and friends.

We wish all of our friends a merry Christmas and a happy new year. Please be certain to stop by or at least call if you are in the area. Between Christmas and New Year's day we will probably be in Eureka, California with the Oringers.

From Kathe Jensen: "I have just returned to Florida after 3 months in Denmark. I attended the 2nd Franco-British Symposium on Malacology in London in September, where I presented 2 papers - one on Elysia serca and one (co-authored with Kerry Clark) on the distribution of chloroplast symbiosis. I met a lot of interesting people and had a very good time. I spent almost a whole day with Tom Gascoigne trying to learn some of his extraordinary dissecting techniques. His eyesight is getting bad, so he has almost completely given up dissecting, but is still actively writing and gardening.

I would like to volunteer to do the Taxon Index for Ascoglossa. My files are in bad shape, but should be almost complete up till 1977, when I suddenly got too busy to continue updating them. But now I have some spare time (between writing job applications), and would like to get my files reorganized and updated, and will, of course, share as soon as possible. Presently I do not have access to the ICZN publications, so that will have to wait till next time I visit the Copenhagen Museum (probably in March). My files consist of genus-species name, authority, substrate (if known), locality, and literature reference. Please let me know if you want any other data included -- which may take some time, as some references are very hard to find. Also, I do not have a complete list of references with ON-numbers, so I will not be able to include these. I am enclosing a list of citations, which I compiled for my work on the toxicity of Mourgona germaineae, and which I do not think have appeared in ON." [Your offer is accepted! -- Editor]

From Eveline Marcus: "I am trying to get some order into the Pleurobranchinae and Pleurobranchaeidae apart from Berthellinae. They have been the pest for all previous researchers, Bergh, Vayssière, O'Donoghue, Odhner, Engel, and others complain, but no one finds a solution. I am afraid I will not either!"

It seems that Dave Behrens is also working with an Alpha Micro computer system which may offer additional opportunities for information exchange. From Dave: "I have recently received my 'taxonomic list & Veliger Index' from Steve Long. To those of you who have not seen the list, I must tell you that I find it to be a very valuable and a great reference tool. A lot of effort went into the preparation of the list, as you will see, and I'm sure you'll find it quite useful."

Mike Haberland has promised a report on his Isla La Guardia trip soon.

From James R. Lance: "Whewh! A reply from Ortea (along with color pics and the like) shows me that his published Peltodoris nyarita is indeed not our
